

PARTICIPATION RULES

Please review the “Participation Rules” so you are familiar with the program’s expectations prior to arrival. Be advised that any participant that does not comply with these rules may be removed from the program. In order to ensure the safety of our participants and to provide the most rewarding and enjoyable recreation experience we can, we must insist on a standard of behavior that includes the following:

- Participants must respect staff, other participants and equipment, at all time.
- Participants must practice fair play, honesty, and good sportsmanship.
- Participants must be able to cooperate in a large group setting.
- Participants must follow instructions and rules.
- Participants must be aware of obvious dangers (roads, water, etc.)
- Participants must be able to interact positively with fellow participants and staff.
- Participants must stay with their group and listen to the staff members.

The following will not be allowed and will be grounds for dismissal from recreation programs.

- Inappropriate, disrespectful, uncooperative or disruptive behavior.
- Abusive language and inappropriate gestures.
- Injuring another participant, staff or person through an inappropriate action.
- Fighting or putting your hands on any other person in a harmful or inappropriate way.
- Throwing things in anger.
- Biting, spitting on others, equipment or property.
- Stealing or misuse of property.
- Bringing cigarettes (under 18) alcohol, drugs, firearms, knives or weapons of any sort.
- Any other behavior that the City of Middletown deems disruptive to its programs.
- Any other behavior that the City of Middletown deems compromising to the safety of others.
- We understand that parents/guardians and participants will be held responsible for participants actions at recreation programs.
- We understand that part of the recreation experience involves activities and interactions that may be new to participants and that they come with certain risks.
