6. MONTHLY REPORT

- Monthly report given by Chief Kronenberger:
 - Call comparison:
 - Call volume down roughly 20% for month
 - Change to response responsible for this – scale back from Community Health Center, convalescent homes, doctor offices, etc.
 - EMS numbers down, fire numbers way up for the month
 - Wesleyan calls were at 9 for the month – extremely slow
 - Fourth of July festival:
 - All the extensive planning payed off – extremely well prepared
 - Good exercise last Thursday
 - Mobilized the city emergency operations plan based on a facilitated incident on Rt. 9 & Washington Street
 - Partnered up with the hospital
 - Deputy Fire Marshal Matt Scarozzo will be retiring as of Wednesday after a 28 year run
 - Will start the process of a promotion
 - In his absence Assistant Fire Marshal Gary Gessaro will be bumped to Acting Deputy Fire Marshal
 - Over the course of the month of June did both ventilation and joint training with South Fire at the training facility on East Main Street
 - Was a successful training
 - Safety stand down done
 - Concentrate on the safety of personnel – SCBA policies were discussed

8. OLD BUSINESS

- Bucket truck has progressed through Public Works – Chief thanked those involved with the help
 - Contract negotiations
 - Meeting tomorrow – should wrap up soon
 - Facilities update:
 - Plugging along with the potential of a new building at Cross Street or at Mile Lane
 - Nothing new to report since last month
- FEMA Grant applied for was granted to Middletown Fire Department
 - Received just about $300,000.00 for replacement of Self Contained Breathing Apparatus
 - Going to be a community cost share
 - $299,335.00 total grant - $285,081.00 is the federal share
 - $14,254.00 needed
 - Commissioner Bartolotta stated her congratulations for getting it done and thank you. She stated to the Chief that he did a phenominal job
 - Chief Kronenberger will be forwarding it to Finance & Government and will be asking for a loan from the General Fund to start the purchasing and through the fund balance to absorb the $14,000 as well
 - Commissioner Pessina wanted to personally thank the Chief for his strong leadership and capabilities to write these grants and to take the time of out of his busy day for the front line officers. Commission Chisem echoed Commissioner Pessina's and Commissioner Bartolotta's statements.

9. NEW BUSINESS

- Commissioner Santangelo asked Chief Kronenberger about a recent incident with regards to Telecommunications
 - Chief Kronenberger stated that the 911 center went down – second time in five months for Middletown
 - Opened EOC and analog lines were still working
